

Mr. Sean T. Mason

November 13, 1972 - June 5, 2019

Sean T. Mason of Westampton passed away suddenly, June 5, 2019. He was 46.

Born in Camden, Sean was a graduate of Cherokee High School where he played football and baseball. Sean was an avid Philadelphia sports fan and enjoyed watching the Eagles, Phillies, and Flyers. Sean loved watching his son, Logan play baseball. Sean was beyond proud of his son, Logan and grinned ear to ear every time Logan stepped up to the plate. Sean's daughter, Hanna. There are no words how he felt when she walked into the room. They both shared a witty personality and the love for the play on words. Hanna is Sean's everything.

Sean is survived by his wife Tracy; his children Logan and Hanna; his parents James and Julia Mason of Felton, DE; 2 sisters Kimberly Mason of Birmingham, England and Jennifer Goldspiel of Gloucester Twp, NJ; nephews: Mason, Timothy, Adam, & Nathan and a niece Cameron. Sean is also survived by his dog Gunther. Gunther loved his "big poppy" and couldn't get enough snuggling time in with him. Sean loved his friends, family beyond words.

Funeral Services will be held privately. Contributions can be made to Sean's children, Logan and Hanna - PNC Bank Lumberton NJ. Sean and Tracy had dreams of sending both of their children to college.

Arrangements by the Perinchief Chapels, Mount Holly. www.perinchief.com

Comments

“ I am so sorry to hear this sad news. I know that you loved your family more than anything, and I hope that gives them some peace and comfort. Fare well, my friend. You will be missed.

Sullivan - Yesterday at 05:58 AM

“ We love you. I will make sure that Logan and Hanna do everything we hope for them. I have them! Go be happy - It's ok now.

XOXO

Me

Tracy - June 11 at 12:25 PM

“ Sean was a terrific guy! My family has known him since he was about 6 yes old. So many good memories and laughs when our families were together. Rest In Peace Sean..... you'll be missed

joann keating - June 10 at 09:45 PM

“ Sean is my cousin and was a GREAT father who loved his 2 children more than anything! He was a GREAT guy, loved and liked by so many, its countless. This is just a tragic loss!! So sad!!

Michael J Smith IV - June 09 at 10:49 PM

“ I worked with him at Simon and Shuster for a few months he helped me to learn things I never thought I could comprehend my last memory of him was hugging me goodbye the day he left our job , you will always be in my heart

Mary Nuckles - Tigourti - June 08 at 06:52 PM