“ Tim was a gent.

That's the word for him. He was serious and curious and gentle and funny. Shy one minute, an adventurer the next. He loved life and tried like hell to describe all its corners.

He was a friend. A listener. The man you wanted in your corner. They don't come along much in life, and across time his loss will cut even deeper than what we feel now.

Sarah, Bob, Susan—I am so sorry. I think of you and send love.
