“ The memories come flooding back... It's been 20 yrs since I moved from N.J to GA but still have the greatest memories of my dad ,Shelby Wayne Peck and Bill Evans ,one of my dad's best friends. Man- o- man the stories those guys had while shooting the bull at B.E.A.R. there in Hainesport!

A life lived to full measure and a good man all around!

Our prayers for the family of Bill Evans, now with the Lord.

Sincerely,

John D.Peck and Family

“ Carole, having lost my father a few years ago, my heart goes out to you right now because this is one of the harder losses you'll face. I miss my dad immensely and still cry once in awhile, but that's okay, it just means he was a good dad. I hope that fond memories of your dad will help get you through this time of sorrow as well. I never got the chance to know Bill that well, but your dad was quite a character. I don't know if what I've said has been helpful or good or bad, but just wanted you to know I'm thinking of you at this time. Please pass on my condolences to your mom, Kevin and family. “ Bill , his brother Shel and I were cousins. When we were young we spent a lot of good times together in Surf City. That was at the home belonging to the father of another cousin and Hainesport guy Joe Gerdleman. We were high school rivals since I lived in Moorestown. They were great football players at Mount Holly who would have squashed me if I played.
I will miss him. He was a classic with his stories and was a magician at fixing cars. Condolences from all the McCarthys to Pat and the family.

“ Bill was a inspiration to me he was alway upbeat no matter what. having to have a halo around his head for years and to keep smiling was the norm for him / he always was always upbeat all the time and i and all love that / he toke me fishing over and over, he took me to dive wrecks over and over / he and i and my family were in the same business for years / when he got out of the business he still stayed in touch / awesome awesome friends i will miss him !!!!!
