

Agueda Torres

November 27, 1928 - January 24, 2021

Agueda Torres, 92, of Westampton, NJ passed away peacefully at home on January 24th, 2021. Blessed into the world on November 27th, 1928, she was raised by her father Felipe Cordero Sanchez, and mother, Juanita Cordero Ayala in Barceloneta, Puerto Rico. She was the youngest of 13 siblings.

On June 28th, 1952, she married her husband, First Sergeant Arcadio Torres, whom she originally met as a pen pal.

After her husband enlisted in the army they lived on numerous military bases across the continental United States until he was killed in action on June 4th, 1970 during the Vietnam War. Most of her long and happy life was spent in Westampton, NJ surrounded by a community that adored her.

She had a career in Electronics and worked in IT for Northern Telecom & G.R.M. She also volunteered as a US Election Worker for Westampton Township. Above all, she dedicated her life to raising her family and praising her love for God as a devout Roman Catholic.

Rice, beans, and tostones were her specialties and everyone knew Agueda as a Master Chef. You never left hungry after visiting and you longed for her dinners with family and lively conversation. She spent her days outside in her garden, admiring the clouds, tending to her rose bushes, and growing her own produce. Agueda's love for animals was profound, she loved every creature no matter its shape or size. Crocheting and knitting were one of her favorite pastimes, her specialty, doilies. When she wasn't knitting, you could find her traveling the world, sightseeing, or playing slot machines. There was never a time she was out of arm's reach from her loving family.

Agueda Torres carries her legacy through her wonderful children Magaly Weinstein and Sandy Torres (Fiancé Beth McGovney), and her grandchildren: Alicia Torres (Husband Daniel Miller), Captain Ryan Torres, Branden Weinstein, Rachel Weinstein, and her pets, Leo, Malibu, Sadie, Aspen, and Cairo.

You couldn't find a more caring soul, Agueda made an impact on every person she met. Her kindness, grace, and selflessness will be greatly missed but her spirit will live on in cherished memories, the family she created, and in her exquisite recipes.

“ Grandma was such a wonderful and happy woman. I'm so thankful for the time we got to spend with her and I will forever cherish those memories.

“ I’m going to miss everything about you.

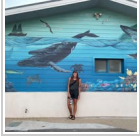

The way you described food as “berry good”, holding your hand in the backseat of the car when we went on road trips, how much you loved musicals and clapped along, sharing popcorn with you at the movies, your incredible cooking, pushing you and your wheelchair through every type of terrain and you telling me to go faster, your love for animals, fondness of the clouds, sky, nature and plants.

Above all, you were selfless, kind, and resilient. I carry a piece of you with me everyday.

I love you, I miss you and I will never forget you grammie. ❤️

“ Weinstein and Torres family, I am so sorry for your loss. She sounds like a wonderful mother and grandmother. Below is a short poem to remember her by, keeping you and Agueda in my thoughts ❤️

*Agueda is yellow
In the sunshine
In the warmth of her sweater
That her grand daughter now wears*

*Agueda is tostones
With rice and beans
In the pot and in the pan
Always serving those in need*

*Agueda is purple lipstick
Full of laughter,
ear to ear,
Across the face of all who meet her*

*Agueda is in her garden
Growing food, growing love
Growing the family
That surrounds us now*

*Agueda is planes, trains
Cars, and buses
Instilling adventure
To always explore with curiosity and wonder*

*Agueda is in her room,
in her house, in her neighborhood,
in her city, in her country.
But we bring her with us where we go*

*She is in every meal,
Every smile,*

*Every garden,
Every moment.*
