

Alfred "Al" H. Lyon

June 17, 1940 - January 6, 2025

Alfred "Al" passed away on Monday, January 6th, surrounded by loved ones. He was born to Scottish immigrant parents in Trenton, NJ. Throughout his childhood, he was a huge baseball fan and player. Al went on to become a star southpaw pitcher at Ewing High School and was scouted by the Pirates, Dodgers and Braves. He was also a varsity basketball player. Ewing HS brought love, as he went on to marry his high school sweetheart, Marion Rinaldi after they both graduated. A graduate of Rider College, he began his career as a teacher, but quickly moved into accounting and ultimately a prominent career in finance.

Al was all about family, and spent many years working on an extensive family tree. He enjoyed family gatherings and visits from family far and near. When his kids were young, he was not only a supporter of their interests but also became involved, especially youth sports as a coach. Whether on the sidelines of a game or in the seats watching his kids in a performance, he was cheering them along. Al was an avid traveler along with wife Marion, enjoying trips to countless countries across the world.

He was preceded in death by his son, Kenneth, his parents, Alfred and Elizabeth "Betty", and brother, David. He is survived by his wife, Marion; son, Russell and husband, Grant; son, Scott and wife, Emily; daughter, Alyssa and husband, Jay; daughter-in-law, Brenda; sister, Elizabeth Ranson; grandchildren Amanda, Bronson, Bryce, Vance, Ainsley, and Tavie; and six great-grandchildren, Bronson, Nicholas, Charlie, Prudence, Cassidy and Brecken.
