“ If tears could build a stairway
and thoughts a memory lane, I'd walk right up to heaven and bring you home again.
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say good-bye,
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knows why.

*My heart's still active in sadness
And secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you
No one can ever know.
But now I know you want us
To mourn for you no more,
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.*

*Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today
A hallowed place within my heart
Is where you'll always stay.*

“ We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

“ A friend recently sent me a condolence only Grandmother's passing it said, " Now use what She taught you."
As I sit on reflect on my life as a young child till now as a grown woman, the memories she has left me with are rolling in like the tide.
She loved her family, unconditionally. She loved God! Cooking, gardening, traveling. She appreciated simple things & didn't care for the materialistic things in life. As long as her simple needs in life were met she was content.
Don't take life for granted, slow down and enjoy your life & don't forget to smell the roses, your words will be forever etched in my mind.
I hope someday to be a Grandmother like you. She made the difference in my life, the lives of the people she knew & loved.
I'm going to miss my Grandmother more than anyone knows.
