

Andrea "Andi" Watson

October 25, 1951 - February 15, 2019

Andrea "Andi" Watson died on Friday, February 15, 2019. She was 67. Born in Rhode Island, Andi lived most of her life in Mount Holly and graduated from RVRHS in 1969. After retiring from the State of New Jersey, she pursued her passion of dog training. She frequently traveled throughout the country to visit family and friends, often with at least one of her dogs. She was always ready for a road trip! Andi will be missed by husband Robert Schneider; daughter Theresa Watson and son-in-law Richard Kirkwood; siblings Gerald (Kathy) Watson, Patrice (Terry) Barrow, and Lisa Watson; sisters-in-law Joan (Jeff) Stippick and Karen Schneider; numerous nieces and nephews; and so many dear friends. She is predeceased by parents Ralph "Curly" and Theresa "Terry" Watson. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Wild Instincts (www.wildinstinctsrehab.com) animal rehabilitation. The family will announce a gathering to celebrate Andi's life at a later date.

“ My dear Andi...You .were tough as nails...get er done attitude...What fun we all had together..whether NYC, Philly or LBI we always found a way to laugh and turn heads by passersby who probably wanted to join our party !! Last Sept when we shared time in St Pete was awesome with your 'dog' team .. Thank you..There is nobody who will forget you....RIP...Saluting with Tito's or Grey Goose..which would you prefer?? I love you....Denise

“ I worked with Andi over thirty years ago in a small law office, while I was still a law student. She was kind and funny. I only saw her in a passing once since then, but I've never forgotten her. My sympathy for your loss.
