“ I can't put into words how I am feeling. It has been 25 days and it is just as hard today as it was 25 days ago. I have so many good memories that I am hoping one day they will take over for the tremendous heart ache I feel now. I am so happy you are out of discomfort but I am missing you so bad my best friend!! You always put others before you and wanted everyone to be happy and taken care of regardless of how it made you feel. I know Harvey knew what was going on and didn't last but 19 days after you he loved you with all his heart the same that you loved him. Mom one day I will see you again.. I love you. Michelle

“ Anita was the matriarch of the family when mom passed. She was there for anybody that needed anything.... never asked why. She did her best at keeping everyone together. She will be missed more then words can express..... I am grateful that I got to spend some time with her in her final days..... which it should not have taken her final days for me to do that. We can all learn from this just how precious life is..... and as Samaritan Hospice says... EMBRACE EACH MOMENT.... (they took such good care of her)..... prayers for peace and comfort in the following days go out to Anita's children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters. She loved you all very much... Andrea C Bartholomew

My big sister Anita was the one I turned to so many times in my life and now she is gone. We let our hard heads keep us apart in the past and they were wasted years that I regret. We got past that years ago and came back together to share many good times. Your were always at our picnics and on many bus trips with us. We traveled together for Robins and Dads Funeral, we laughed so hard when I left Dennis at the rest area. When we were together we always laughed about all the crazy things we did growing up like when I got up in the morning and found your car parked on the porch. I'm glad Peggy and I could be there with you when you needed us. We will miss you so much in our lives, our hearts are broken. Kevin Bartholomew

“ I will miss you mama everyday of the rest of my life. You were the glue of the family, Our family care giver to all, even as I grew up and had my own family you wanted to make sure I was happy. You always made sure everyone else had what they needed before yourself. You treated everyone with respect even when they didn't show you the same. You are definitely a true Angel of God. I will cherish the memories we shared, and anticipate the day I see you again. You are home! So take a big long deep breath and just know that you are loved so much and will be missed dearly. I love you

“ Anita was a loving sister-in-law. I'm thankful that she and my brother had one another, especially during those difficult times when their health failed. Anita was a real fighter. She loved the Lord; was faithful in worshipping him, both in her daily life and on Sundays as she attended Church ... even up to coming out on Sunday several weeks before her illness prevented her attendance. I know she is with her Savior. I will miss her, but am thankful to know she is no longer struggling for every breath. She is finally home! She is finally healed. All tears are gone. I'll see her again one day in heaven. She just got there ahead of me, and perhaps Clayton was one of the first to greet her!
