Seaside boardwalk (The Sawmill), as well as watching her son Bobby play and coach baseball, and was most proud of him earning the title of United States Marine and serving in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Annemarie was the loving wife of Joseph Kerlin, loving mother of Bobby Raditz and his wife Erika Raditz, and dearly loved “Anma” to her two precious grandchildren Emma Raditz and Maverick Raditz. “ What an amazing Mom! As Bobby’s high school counselor, “Mom” and I spoke often. While she loved Bobby unconditionally, she always held him accountable for his decisions. We would often laugh about which one of us he was going to make gray first! I’m so glad she was with Bobby long enough to see him grow into such an amazing husband and father. Bobby, she was so proud to be your Mom, loved Erika and was thrilled to be a grandma to Emma and Mav. Be strong, Bobby. She will always be watching over you ❤️.

I can still hear the sound of Annemarie's laughter. It was contagious and I remember many times laughing until I cried and/or peed my pants. Annemarie had a huge heart and was Selfless when it came to taking care of others. I know she was crazy about her grandbabies. Rest in peace, honey until we meet again. Love your Aunt Mary
