“ Nan, I am honored to be part of your life. While everyone around saw the "tough cookie" that you portrayed, I remember making doughnuts and listening to stories of knick knacks on the shelf as I sat upon your lap. You blessed my life in many more ways than I can write about. Although you will be missed and life for your family will change, each of us have our own special story that allows you to be here with us. All of that can be accredited to your love and commitment to your family. You were a tough cookie with a gooey center and I will always be proud to call you my Nan.##imported-begin##Lillan Romanowski##imported-end##
