“ I knew Tony as a kid, going to the races with my dad, "Davey" as Tony called him. A couple of years ago, a horse with a ton of heart, Tony Ann started racing. I got Tony's number and we spent the past couple of years being friends over the phone. He sung his song of his beloved wife to me, as he did to many others lucky enough to share some moments with him. I miss our calls, but I cherish that they happened at all. Hearing your happiness with your family, talking about racing, and so on... God bless you Tony, pick some winners up there with my dad, and your brother, and finish that song with your lovely wife Anne! You had a nice run, didn't you?
