“ *How do you put into words the sadness you feel to lose someone so special in life. Anthony and I loved so much about you. We had many fun times together but one of the best was our trip to NY at Christmas time. Sharing our room and seeing the Rockettes and best of all, the pictures we posed for when there was actually no film in the camera. Memories remain in our hearts just as they will of you. Until we meet again, prepare for our rejoining you and all the fun we can have then.
Love you forever!*

Steve, wish we were there, we love you and send our deepest sympathy.
