“ Barb and I grew up together, being cousin , and the same age and living in the same town, having the same disabilities of a lazy eye , and those teeth. We visited and did things together with our sisters. We went to school through 12 grade . After school our lives changed , we grow up and move in different directions but never remembering where we were. Messenger recently I knew of her pain and what she has been through iBut Barb being Barb was concerned about ME! RIP Barb , my cousin , I Love you ! ❤️
