“ Barbara was a very gentle, loving and caring woman and will be sorely missed. Her easy going and calm approach was a comfort to me and I will truly miss her infectious smile. Barb was skilled at presenting education to all levels at the Center and did it in a way that made the education fun and enjoyable. She was overjoyed to become a mother and she glowed whenever I would ask her about her children. A wonderful woman who was taken from us way too soon. Rest in peace Barb.

“ I read the obituary about the loss of your loved one and I extend my sincere condolences. At this time you are feeling an unbearable pain, and experiencing a great loss. Psalms 46:1 says, “God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress.” He will help you get through this difficult time. (Isaiah 41:10) I hope this brief Bible message has brought you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ Dear Johnson family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ I will miss Barb at work, she was always so helpful to me personally. I remember a time when she came in during the middle of the night to do an in-service for the nurses, we shared some laughs! She was glowing with her children and so excited to be having twins! May she rest in peace and know that my work life was a little sweeter with her there, I will miss her...

“ Razon, our thoughts and prayers are with you and the twins at this very sad time. Barb loved you and the children so much. You were her heart and soul. And then the twins came and her love for you and the children was tenfold. Barb's love for you and the twins will live forever. Never doubt that she is watching over you. Rest in peace Barb.

“ I remember when Barbara was born. Though we never saw each other much, she was always one of my favorite cousins, just an outstanding girl. We reconnected through facebook a few years back and it was great seeing her, Razon, and then the children. My heart goes out to everyone who knew her. I will miss you Barbara.

“ Barb and I went to Cardinal Dougherty together. So many great memories of Barb! Theatre, standing outside every morning before school chatting and laughing, and hanging out at friend's houses and cast parties. Barb's smile and laughter are what is etched in my mind and heart. I will never forget you, Barb. Rest well.

“ Barbara was my friend for 28 years. I am currently unable to wrap my brain around the fact that she is no longer with us. But I am comforted by the fact that she is with her parents, who were taken from her so long ago. She lost her dad when she was 18, and her mother prior to that. They are taking care of her now. And we all have a beautiful guardian angel, who was an amazing person in life. Barbara was funny, sweet, kind, and very loving. She was dedicated to her family. Her husband and children were everything to her. The world has dimmed some now that she is gone. But I know she will continue to shine love down on her family who treasured the time they had with her. She will be greatly missed. You fought your battle hard, but now it is time to rest. Rest in peace, Barb.
