“ Barbara wasn't just a neighbor, she was family. We were blessed to live next door to her for the past 17 years. Our children considered her a "third grandma". We will really miss her friendship and kindness. ❤️

“ I will always remember Barbara as a warm and kind person. Whenever I met her while we were both out doing errands, she and I would have a nice conversation before going on our way. Barbara had a gift of picking just what a person enjoyed when she gave Christmas gifts, which showed how attentive she was to others. Her kindness and gentleness will always stay with us, I know she will be greatly missed.
