“ I met Barbara in Flamenco Dance class. She was admired by all for her beautiful and dramatic dancing. She was a star in our occasional shows during which she often performed solos and duets. Barbara and I also had love of salsa dancing and love of cats in common. We used to update each other on how our cats were doing. Here are some pictures of her beloved cats, Sunshine, Lola, Angelina and Tiki that she had sent me over the years. I also have a picture of Barbara and Tony Dovolani from DWTS at a dance judging event in Brooklyn. Barbara was so excited to meet him! Beautiful Barbara will always be remembered for her warmth, lovely smile and uplifting spirit which are now blessing heaven. Love and condolences to the family. . -- Isabel Mountbatten

“ Barbara was a superstar. She had more friends than anyone I've ever known. She loved dancing and was always ready to go - we once trudged through a blizzard to get to the Copa! Her smile and joyfulness will stay with me always. To know her was to love her. She was one of a kind.

“ Barb was a very kind person, easy to get along with, always smiling and full of energy. She loved life and lived for her salsa dancing, friends, family, and beloved kitties. We made memories together when Stefania and I visited her for a few days and she took us to see the sights of NYC! I will get to know you even better, Barb, when we meet again. Until then, dance, dance, dance....
