“ A humble , down to earth , God fearing person , a true friend, full of life , kind, loving and caring person , fun to be with is what I remember of Bernard. Like a brother to me , he was my roommate and a good support when we came to the US (Queens NY) in June of 1984 and worked in Psychiatry till I moved to Texas in December of 1992. My wife Helen and myself were blessed with his company at work and in all fun activities like vacations, parties, and other get together with other co nurses from our group . Holidays , birthdays, weddings, or just an afternoon or a weekend get away , spending time, eating , dancing and singing... He had a beautiful voice and yes my wife had duets (karaoke) with him. He never misses to greet us during holidays & talking with him on the phone usually lasts long just to catch up with things. We will miss you Bernard ...Rest peacefully dear friend , I know you are happy with Our creator now . We pray for strength for Nadine and all of your family
