

Bernardino Torres-Cartagena

May 21, 1928 - February 4, 2018

Bernardino Torres-Cartagena, affectionately known to many as Nino, was born on May 21, 1928. He grew his wings at the age of 89 on February 4, 2018 with his family by his side. Bernardino resided in Mount Holly, NJ most of his life. He was born to Santos Cartagena and Julio Torres and had nine siblings. He spent his earlier life in Camarones Villalba, Puerto Rico. Bernardino was a father to many and his children are Elizabeth Williams (Kevin), Sonia Torres, Evelyn Smith, Milagros Malo (John), Francisco Torres (Robin), Estrella Evans, and Santos Ortiz. He was blessed with seventeen grandchildren, and helped raise two of them, Miguel and Denisia Williams, 6 great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

Bernardino was well known in the community for his handyman work and worked at the Burlington Diner for twenty plus years. He touched the hearts of many and created a loving environment for anyone who needed it. He dedicated himself to his family and truly loved everyone he met. In his later life he enjoyed teaching his grandchildren about their culture, doing thousand-piece puzzles, watching Bad Girls Club, Sanford and Son, and Martin. He loved to listen to music, loved to sing, and he knew how to play a multitude of instruments. The family would like to give special acknowledgements to Jesus Cartagena, Maria Torres, Raul Cartagena, Carmen Cartagena, and Gilberto Cartagena. Nino is loved by many and will truly be missed.

I will always remember him smile while playing dominos at the Hispanic Center. He didn't think Ruthie and I could play. After we won lol he let us play all the time. He loved his children.
