“ Donna, Jim, and Jason,
You are all a testament to what a loving person Betty was, this is where you big hearts and thoughtfulness started. No one could have been a better daughter than you were to your Mom, there is no doubt a void will be left but as time goes by your happy memories will replace the loss, she will be in your hearts forever so will live on in you. Never forget even if we don't see each other does not mean you are not thought of, and you are kept in our thoughts and prayers, I only wish I could be there for you.
Love
Karen

“ As a Chaplain Aide I had the pleasure of visiting and getting to know Betty at Virtua. She was a warm, humorous and delightful lady who shared many stories about her life with me, and was always upbeat with a smile on her face. How Betty loved her family! She was truly devoted to them, as they to her. I will really miss seeing her each week and our visits together, and feel blessed to have gotten to know her.
