“ To the Family of Betty Lou: I am very sorry to hear about Betty Lou and will miss her very much. My thoughts are with all of you. Betty Lou and I exchanged Christmas Cards and Emails for the last twenty years or more. I was just one of her genealogy buddies and family researchers who looked forward to each of her emails to find out the latest news. Each year her Christmas card to me stood out above all the rest.

“ So sorry for your loss. Mother called me later and I'm up in the U.P. visiting her right now. Haven't seen you guys since I was a kid, hope all is going well. Always enjoyed when Aunt Betty Lou came to visit when we were kids. We live in PA now, but we spent alot of time in Alaska. We went to Bovan reunion few years back but didn't see you guys. Maybe the next one? Take care. Love Bobby Layne###imported-begin###Robert and Beverly and Jason & Deserah Strand###imported-end##

“ I am very sorry Aunt Betty Lou died. She was one if the most colorful relatives we had in dad's family. She was also one of the most honest, level headed, and toughest of the Bovan clan. I will miss her too !###imported-begin###Jeff Bovan###imported-end##
