

Beverly Jean Hancock

December 16, 1943 - June 17, 2019

Beverly Jean Hancock, 75, of Westampton, NJ passed away on Monday, June 17, from complications of Mantle Cell Lymphoma. Her beloved children were by her side.

Beverly was born December 16, 1943, in Bridgeton, NJ to Garth LeRoy and Esther Elizabeth Harbison Gongloff. Through her Christian upbringing, she developed a passion for helping others. As a young woman, she obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree in Teaching English and History from Montclair State University and later a Master's degree in Counseling from Temple University. For over 30 years she devoted her life to teaching, guiding, and encouraging high school students. During her early career, she taught in the Burlington Township school system and later found her professional home as a counselor at the Burlington County Institute of Technology in Westampton, NJ. Beverly was also an active member of St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Mount Holly, NJ where she served as a Sunday School teacher for many years. Not only did Beverly help young people in these settings, but she also opened her home to troubled youth and provided them with love and security, which they otherwise would not have experienced.

Beverly was kind-hearted, loving, and selfless. It didn't matter what she was going through, she always placed everyone else's needs above her own. She celebrated life and was grateful for every day and all that God blessed her with. She cherished her late husband of 45 years, James Everett Hancock Jr., her children James Michael Hancock and Faith Lynn Borradaile (Tom), and only grandchild Madison Elizabeth Borradaile, and loved them all unconditionally. Beverly enjoyed sewing, reading, and spending time with her family and friends but her greatest joy was watching her children and granddaughter learn, grow, and experience the beauty of the world that God created. Anyone who had the pleasure of knowing her was truly blessed.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, June 22, at 10:00 AM at Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church, 121 High St., Mount Holly, NJ 08060. Interment will follow in St. Andrew's Graveyard. Relatives and friends are invited to attend her visitation on Friday June 21 from 6-8 PM and Saturday morning from 9:15-9:45 AM at the Church followed by the Service of Holy Eucharist at 10:00. Contributions in her honor may be made to Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church at the address above.
