“ I was my dad's favorite son until my brother came along 10 years later lol. I was a tomboy.. He taught me how to ride motorcycles, shoot guns, fish, play soccer, football and basketball, ride skateboards, drive a car when I was 10, etc etc etc.. He was the hardest, toughest person In my life for good reason.. He was with me when I sign my first lease on my apartment when I was 19.. He made me into the person I am today.. A person of very tough skin, resilience, and a very strong personality. It doesn't always show, but like father like daughter... We were very much connected and how much we care about people and how loyal we are no matter how tough we always choose to be. I'm so proud of the woman you were part of making me along with my mother.. I wouldn't have it any other way I'm so grateful for all of the times and memories that we shared.

“ One cherished memory that always brings a smile to my face is how Dad would draw on my birthday cards each year. He did this throughout my entire life. With a heart full of love, he'd sketch scenes of us together, hunting or fishing. Those drawings held a lot of meaning, they were snapshots of our shared adventures and the bond we held dear. Each year he captured the essence of our time spent together, memories that will last a lifetime. His thoughtful gesture spoke louder than any words he could've wrote in the card, reminding me of the special connection we shared and the precious moments we treasured. I will miss my dad and especially his birthday cards.

Rev 21:4-5 “He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!” Then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.”

“ Brian and Kathy have been great friends since we met him. Kathy and I go way back, but when we met Brian, we enjoyed doing things together. Ray and Brian became best buds and were not above pulling stunts on Kathy and me. It's with a heavy heart ❤️ that my family and I say goodbye. Keep your shannigans to a minimum when you meet up with Ray!
