“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 to “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what you are facing God is there to help you get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.

My best friend , the sister I didn't know until I met you.. We have been through so much together .. The highs and the the lows.. How am going to go on without you.. Without being able to pick up the phone and hear your voice.. I've struggled with that that for the past 2 years .. How am I to go forever without that? This I will promise .. Your children, Kimberly and Charity, your grandchildren, Cotye, Alyssa and Leylene, your great child Ryker will forever know the amazing woman you are .. You lived your life for your family and just like mine, they don't know what that had until it's gone.. Heaven gained the most amazing angel when God called you home .. Please look down on us with the love that you gave us each day of your life.. Please help me to go on without you.. With love that can't be measured.. Always, Karen

“ I met Candy at Medport diner, when she was a hostess there, many years ago. She knew i was coming in for my cream of broccoli soup. We always joked about it. She was one of the sweetest ladies you would ever want to meet. Rest in peace
