“ My loving sister-in-law Carol... I will miss you.. especially during the holidays and our visits to Lambert Castle... I don't think I can ever go there again and not think of you, as I know you will be with me in spirit...

your love for my brother touched me ... he was happiest when he was doing things with you and for that I will be forever grateful. Rest In Peace now as you are no longer suffering. We are all better for having had you in our life..

“ Butch, Monte, Carla and the entire Homan Family and Friends,

Carol's love is always with you. Her laughter and her wisdom, her advice and thoughtfulness are gifts of love that are yours to keep forever in your hearts.

May the gifts of her presence with you all be the true celebration of her life as she impacted many on her journey as a dedicated Mother, Wife, Grandmother, Daughter Sister in Law and friend. We are truly shaken by her loss and grieve with you, console you and help fill your hearts with memories that will always comfort you.

Carol will be missed greatly and remembered profoundly by us all. She is in peace, resting and waiting to see us all again. May God bless her with eternal peace.....
