“ When I met Sean, he spoke very highly of his Aunt Carol. I knew immediately that he loved her. He told me, when you meet her you will love her too. And I did. She accepted me for who I was as a person and welcomed me into her home and heart. That is who she was. The best Aunt anyone could ever have. Aunt Carol, you have done so much for us and everyone for that matter, as you touched so many. I will without a doubt miss you! I love you and thank you for being so good to me. Until we meet again, may you Rest In Peace. Love Always XOXO Kim “O”

“ There is no way I could share just one memory and do justice to the wonderful woman that was my Aunt Carol. She was most definitely the rock and the glue that kept our family together. As long as I can remember her house felt like “home” to me as well as many others. I often joked that it was one of the few places other than my own that I could sit on the couch and fall asleep comfortably and peacefully. Christmas time as well as most other holidays there was no place like Aunt Carol’s and Uncle Joe’s. It is hard to explain the warmth and love that you felt around them especially around the Holidays. Over the course of my life I have lived in so many places I’ve lost track of them all. I also spent almost 7 years running the road driving a truck but through it all I always knew I had Aunt Carol and the welcoming warmth of her home to help keep me grounded. I will forever cherish these moments and hold them dear to my heart for as long as I walk this Earth.

“ I will never forget the many memories we shared. There are many...but I will always cherish the times we shared with family, whether it was a weekend as kids in Mt. Holly or vacations we shared with our families. She was absolutely the best and I know she will be sorely missed. You always think....tomorrow....but maybe tomorrow should of been yesterday. My heart breaks for you all! I can't even imagine! All of you are in my prayers.
