“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 to “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what you are facing God is there to help you get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.

“ I was a substitute teacher for Cary years ago at Wilbur Watts school in Burlington. There was something about his spirit that always remained with me and out of all of the students I came in contact with, I never forgot his name and that's saying something for me! I saw him again recently and he remembered me! He had a beautiful smile and spoke such kind words....he made my day! He had a special quality that will make him forever unforgettable.

“ Cary was young man with a great heart and spirit. He was always an active energetic child as I recall growing up in Burlington who grew into a fine man the older he got. His family and friends lost a great person however he will always be remembered. The good ones always are.

“ I was not blessed to have met Cary personally but I felt like I knew him through Dawn. She always talked highly of him and was thrilled about the engagement. I hope Ashley can find some peace in knowing how much he loves her and in the memories they shared. You will always have them and he will always be looking down on you and be in your heart. My condolences to both families. I pray for peace and healing for all.

“ Since the day I met you, you pushed me to be more. We were just kids playing baseball, and you were just always so driven and competitive we were drawn together because of our conflict and competition. Endless hours playing Madden trash talking back and forth. The arguments of cowboys/eagles that always led us in circles. No one could ever fill the void you left in my life my friend I love you and I miss you. Tell Nate and Sean I miss them too. I'm sure you already did that for me though. RIP Cary

“ To Ashley , the Hathaway and Reynolds families; We cannot be there but know that we are with you in spirit, sending love and prayers at this very difficult time. I feel blessed to have seen Cary last on the most happy day of his life when Ashley accepted his ring and marriage proposal. I will always remember him that way and I know you all will too. May the love of God and your family keep you strong. God bless my friends. Love, Lorrie and Neil Ritter.
