“ I can remember a very long time ago being at the shore house with Connie and Jimmy, Lorraine and Joe, Kristine and Mrs.N and the kids who were all little then and we had just had dinner together. Some were cleaning up, some went to living room and I went outside on deck. Mrs. N came outside too. We were chatting and talking about the kids and watching everyone inside the house. Mrs.N was smiling and said she loved it there, she said she loved having everyone there together talking and laughing and enjoying spending time together. At a recent family event I got to see Mrs.N and we were reminiscing about the times at the shore house and the boys being so ornery. She said she wanted to go back to those summer days when everyone was together at the shore house. Thanks for everything Mrs. N!
