*Kathy,
May you rest in peace.
my most memorable moment with you, is when you went out of your way came to the hospital to bring a beautiful gift after you retired from Virtua , at first I didn't know what it was cause it was wrapped in beautiful wrapping paper with a pretty bow. I was so excited to receive this gift until I opened it..... It was a roll of toilet paper with the Dallas Cowboys Logo....I though at first how cool is this...until I put my glasses on and looked a little closer and it wasn't nice after all....It read F*** Dallas. Kathy you laughed so hard and of course I put my head down and went dag... really Kathy. to this day I still have the roll of toilet and now will cherish it forever. It was a moment I'll never ...Kathy and I shared a lot banter when it came to Eagles verses the Cowboys. May you rest in peace my friend, you will be missed by so many. Go Cowboys!! Kathy!!

“ Mom I can't find the words to describe the pain in my heart over losing you. It hurts to breathe since you've been gone. I saw you today and you looked at peace and the smile on your face eased a little of the pain. You weren't just my mother, you were my dad for most of my life as well. You have always been my best friend. You were always the 1st person I would turn to when things were good, bad and whenever I was sick. You always had this sense about you and knew when I needed you without even seeing me. I was at my happiest when I would watch you with my son and how you connected with Sam and had your special relationship and now my granddaughters and you can see the love in your eyes as well as in their eyes. I knew you would be their best friend as well. I will do everything in my power to make sure the girls remember you always. I love you with every fiber of my being and will continue to love and miss you until my last dying breath! Until I see that beautiful face again, Rest In Peace and know that your children are here and holding each other together as you would want. Love you so very much Mom!! Love Always Ellie
