“My high school years were rather rough but I could always count on Charles to be kind and one of the dearest persons in my classes. I never heard Charles utter a single negative comment about anything, just the opposite. If I was annoyed about a grade or a teacher, Charles always found something positive to say. This joy continued throughout his life. Rest in peace, my dear friend.

“ We had such a great time playing gray haired characters in the senior class play. He called me my character's name for years. That was the real beginning of our friendship. We'll miss your kind heart.

I know you soar with angels now and that that your heart has wings. We know you're watching over us whatever this world brings. We know you were a gift from god and that you are now safe above. We know also that we will see you again and once more feel your love. We know you live in heaven now and that you would want us to go on. Please know our hearts aches for you until our time is done. We will all love you and remember you forever.....You were such a good friend to me. Please rest in peace my good friend.
