

Charles Levi Walton Jr.

July 16, 1937 - March 21, 2026

Charles L. Walton, Jr., passed away on March 21, 2026. Age 88.

Beloved husband of Sandra J. Walton (nee Daller) for 65 years. Devoted father of Karen L. Moore (Chris), Alison S. Walton, Eliza J. Walton, and Charles L. Walton, III (Jim Pera). Loving grandfather of Christopher Moore (Sarah LoGiudice), Jaclyn Munoz (Noel), and Timothy Moore (Amy) and great grandfather of Evelyn, Arianna, Levi, Charlie, Roman, and Lucy. Dear brother of Tony Walton (Ann) and the late Elizabeth Spare (the late Donald). Also survived by sisters-in-law Betty Lou Turner and Helen Daller, as well as many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Charlie was a graduate of Moorestown High School. He earned his Bachelor's in Engineering from Lehigh University and his Master's in Engineering from Newark College of Engineering. He was a Civil Engineer, Land Surveyor, and Professional Planner. Charlie's engineering career took him and Sandy to Utah, Virginia, Ohio, North Jersey, and Louisiana before settling in South Jersey. He partnered with family friend Frank Atkinson to establish Atkinson & Walton Engineering & Surveying in Medford. After a brief retirement, Charlie went to work part-time as Director of Surveying with Environmental Resolutions, Inc. in Mount Laurel.

Service and inurnment are private at the request of the family. Arrangements under the direction of Perinchief Chapels in Mount Holly, NJ.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Charlie's memory to the charity of the donor's choice.

Tribute Wall

NS

“ So many memories of Mr Walton from all the times I was over to visit Alison. He became like a second father to me. Mr Walton always had a smile to share

---

nancy shaw - March 23 at 04:23 PM