“ My deepest sympathies to Mr. And Mrs. Myers, Juliana, and family. I had the privilege of knowing Chuck for many years, since elementary school. He's made such a positive impact on my life with his advice, opinions, and especially everyday conversation. I will always remember his kindness, sense of humor, and for sure his contagious laugh that still makes me smile. It kills me I can not be there tomorrow to pay my respects to you all and my dear friend. I wish you strength and comfort to heal during this painful time. May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Erin Marie Atkinson##imported-end##

“ To Mr. and Mrs. Myers:

I did not have the privilege of knowing your son, but I do have the distinct privilege of knowing one of his best friends, Mr. Steve Masters, of Mt. Holly.

On this second day of January, when everyone is celebrating the dawn of a New Year and all of its many possibilities, I am acutely feeling the tragic passing of your beloved son, a very talented person who went too soon. Please know that I and many others, some known and some unknown to you, are praying for you as you move through this agonizing and dark journey of mourning and sorrow.

“ My prayers and sympathy to Juliana and Chucks parents, Chuck and Debbie.

I hope you will find peace eventually.

However at this time, I know the emotions will be overwhelming and flowing with sadness. Your family and friends are here for you, just reach out. Chuck has a lot of friends that would do anything to help ease this pain. There are no words that will truly comfort you right now, just know that we are and will forever be by your sides. May Chuck Rest in Peace
