“ My heartfelt condolences go out to Cheryl's family. I am a friend of Sue's and had the pleasure several times of spending time with Cheryl. One that really stands out and makes me smile is the time several years ago when we spent the night in Ocean City (as my Mother mentioned below.) Cheryl had so much fun spending time on the beach as well as on the boardwalk. We all had such a wonderful time—it was especially nice to see Cheryl enjoying herself and smiling ear to ear. To Joe, Joey and Sue, I hope your many loving memories of Cheryl being you peace and help you through this difficult time. May you finally rest in peace sweet Cheryl.

*Love,
Denise*

“ When I first was glad to meet Cheryl years ago, she was laughing, smiling, full of cheer and lightness with twinkling eyes! ~ May all the Ferry and Everham families find comfort in fond memories of her sweet soul. ~

“ I would like to offer my condolences to Cheryl's family and friends. I consider it a blessing to have had the opportunity to work with Cheryl. Cheryl was a consummate professional—I was in awe of her knowledge and abilities and I learned a great deal from her.

I remember that Cheryl loved her family—but mostly especially her son, “Joey”. She beamed when she spoke about him—a mother's love never dies.

While we our saddened by the news of Cheryl's passing, we sorrow, but not like those who have no hope. Cheryl was a woman of faith and it gives me great comfort to know that she is in heaven with the Father and received the greeting that we all desire to hear, “Well done, my good and faithful servant. Rest well my friend.

*With heartfelt sympathy,

“ A happy memory is when Sue and Cheryl visited me and my daughter, Denise, at the shore some years ago. We just did the simplest things like going to the beach, standing at the water's edge, walking the boards at night and going in and out of shops. She was so happy and that made us all happy seeing the joy in her face. Rest in peace, sweet Cheryl. You shall see the face of God and live.

Love, Lorraine

“ Joe,

I am a friend of Sue's and the daughter of Lorraine. I am so, so, sorry for your loss. I never met Cheryl, but, from what Sue tells me about her, she was quite a wonderful person. I have heard about the wonderful care that you took of Cheryl over the years, and my heart is simply overwhelmed. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Eternal rest, O Lord, grant unto Cheryl.
