

Christian M Bauman

June 25, 1991 - December 10, 2014

Christian Bauman of Eastampton went home to be with the Lord on December 10th, 2014. He was 23.

Christian was last employed as a Customer Service Representative with TD Bank, NA and worked in the loan servicing department. He attended BCC, and planned to pursue a career in nursing before a recurrence of osteosarcoma.

He graduated from RVRHS in 2009. Christian was a member of the HS football team and wrestling team. In 2009 Christian was voted most courageous athlete by the South Jersey Coaches' Assoc., Burlington County Athletic Trainers Assoc., and Burlington County Scholastic League after his initial diagnosis with osteosarcoma in 2007. Christian was a member of The First Baptist Church of Willingboro.

Christian's interests were diverse from spending time at the ocean to watching anime; however he mostly enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

He is survived by his parents Charles W. and Ehrica (nee Boyer) Bauman; his brothers Chad Bauman and Connor Bauman; and his maternal grandmother: Daisy Boyer (nee Muse). He is also loved by several aunts, uncles, and cousins. Christian was the grandson of the late Richard Boyer and Elizabeth (nee Parr) and George Charles Bauman.

Funeral Services will be held on Wednesday at 11:00 AM at the First Baptist Church of Willingboro, 216 Sunset Rd., Willingboro. Friends may attend his visitation on Wednesday from 9 – 10:45 AM at the Church. Burial will follow in BGWCD Veteran's Memorial Cemetery in Arneytown. Due to cemetery restrictions on flowers, contributions in Christian's memory may be made to Abramson Cancer Center at Pennsylvania Hospital, 230 West Washington Square, Philadelphia, PA 19106.

“ Christian, I had a dream last night that brought me back to when I was watching you and Chad over at Grandmoms house. You two were just kids back then. You were about 9 or 10. We watched Ninja Turtles, and had sandwiches, then went outside after the movie and kicked a soccer ball around for a while. At one point, I kicked the ball up high and it went into the woods, and you gave me that look that you always did. Everyone knows it well. I can still smell the fresh cut grass, and hear you and Chad laughing. I wish we had gotten more time. Miss you.

“ Its been a while. We used to be friends, and then we just kind of... drifted apart I guess? And that's the worst way to lose someone - for them to just slowly fade from your view until you don't realize they're gone. It's been a long time since you passed; almost a year actually. For some reason you just showed up in my head and I've been thinking about you all day. You were funny, nice, and had a great smile and I miss you.

“ My deepest condolences to Mr. and Mrs. Bauman, Chad and Connor... I am so sorry for your loss. I am thankful for the time I had to know Christian when he was a student at Eastampton Middle School. I am proud to know of the brave and faithful young man he became in the face of such a difficult battle. May God bring comfort and healing to your family and know that you are never alone.

“ You was a amazing friend and I'm going to miss our late night gaming and talks about the Lord. Brother I know you are walking with the Lord and watching down over us. No matter what happend you stayed strong and was there for us all and I will always hold you and your family in my heart. It was a honor to be friends and a XBL family.

Brian Sprague - December 12, 2014 at 10:26 PM

“ I'm glad that I had the honor to meet a friend like you, no matter what happened we all knew in the end of the day we always looked out for each other. No matter what happens I know your going to be there watching over us all. I know when I head to get pizza at La' Bellas that ill be thinking of you or when we are all together on XBL the room will never feel the same with you not being there. Most of all what I know is that you touched a lot of peoples lives and that impact that you left on us is what we will always have to look back on. No matter what though I know its the hardest on your family most of all and we are here for them just like we all promised. I will miss you brother.

“ Our prayers are with your family. My family and I have been praying for Christian for months and I can't begin to imagine how difficult this is for you. He sounds like he was an amazing young man and I look forward to the chance to meet him in heaven one day. Praying the fact that he is no longer sick and is with our Lord and Savior, will bring you peace.
