“ I was friends with Christine during middle school when she lived down the street from me. We’d walk to Holbein together. She taught me about concealer and mascara. She was always kind and I’ll always have fond memories of her.

“ Christine and I worked together for several years and shared a mutual hatred for our job! So complaining to each other is how we became friends! It wasn't long after that we became close friends. I was lucky enough to be introduced to her husband and kids. They all welcomed me! I'll forever be grateful for knowing Christine and having her as a friend and coworker! We lost touch through the years as life happens, but I wish I didn't. My thoughts, prayers, and love go out to her family and children! Christine, may you rest easy! ”
