“ Aunt Clara was a remarkable woman, she had a positive attitude and was always full of life and energy. She was a good sister and friend to my mother Nancy Wasielewski. May her memories always be a blessing to all her family and friends!

“ The passing of Michael's mother Clara finishes the story of how much love a mother and son can share with one another. Everytime Michael and I would speak he would make reference to his mom, whether it be an update on how she was or one of his memories from childhood. Though I only saw Clara a handful of times it was clear to me that there was nothing but love and respect between them.

Few can say that they had one hundred loving years with a parent, I'm glad Michael is one of them.
