

Clarence B Grovatt

August 15, 1916 - September 23, 2023

On Saturday, September 23, 2023, at 11:15am, Clarence Grovatt passed into the presence of His blessed Lord Jesus.

He was born to a farm family in Rancocas, New Jersey on August 15, 1916. He was the fifth of seven children. All of his other siblings have preceded him into Heaven.

He was a farmer by trade and operated a truck farm in his early years in Willingboro, New Jersey

His wife of 74 years preceded him to heaven on July 5, 2014. He was blessed with four children Benjamin, Beverlee Leeds, Janet Bell, and Ted, seven grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. In 1960, he established a sweet corn farm in Tabernacle, New Jersey called Deerhaven Farm. As he moved toward retirement he grew soya beans. He loved the outdoors and spent many enjoyable seasons hunting in the forests of New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Canada.

He lived with Ted and Cindy in the past year and a half sharing time between their homes in Tabernacle and Harvey Cedars, New Jersey. Two months ago, the need for medical care beyond that which could be properly provided in the home setting became apparent. Dad was able to enter Wiley Home in Marlton. He loved Wiley and received the best of care.

As he awaited the call of his Heavenly Father, he awakened each morning singing hymns praising God. This was His natural way of living. God's presence and ways were very real to him. His legacy for his family, was a life of coming to know and walking with God and living by God's standards. He showed us the path of a sinner saved by grace and given eternal life through Jesus Christ.

Funeral Services will be held on Thursday at 11:00 am at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High St., Mount Holly. Relatives and Friends may attend his visitation on Thursday from 10am – 11am at the Funeral Home. Burial in the Mount Holly Cemetery will be private for Immediate Family Only.

Contributions in his memory may be made to the CB Grovatt Baseball Scholarship checks payable to Lenape Regional Scholarship Fund and mail to Senaca High School, Grace McCloskey Scholarship Coordinator, 110 Carranza Rd., Tabernacle, NJ 08068 or to Wiley Mission, 99 E. Main St., Marlton, NJ 08053.

“ Was a beautiful inspirational service today. One story I enjoyed that was not told today was when pop pop stopped driving a car, he , at the age of 100 drove the tractor down to Murphys market to meet his friends for breakfast.

“Pop-pop was a loving grandfather to 8 grandchildren, as noted in his wife Sadie's obituary. Dr. Simon Chao of Boston, MA, came to live with Clarence's oldest son, Ben and his family in 1995 and has been considered as a grandson ever since. Simon loved visiting Pop-pop frequently over the years and was always happy to consult with any health issues or just listen to Pop-pop's jokes.

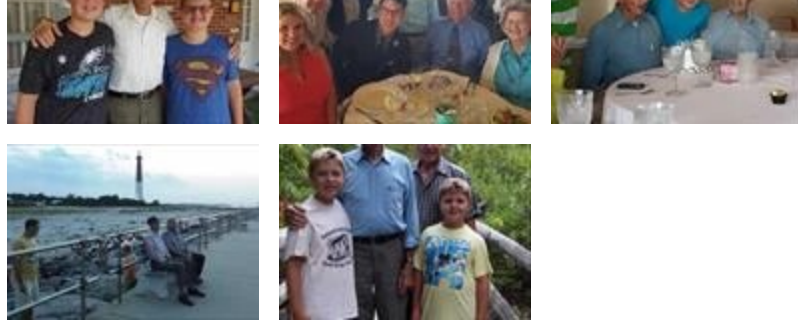

I, Amy, Ben and Pat's daughter, was Pop-pop's 3rd granddaughter. He loved to tease me and would always say, "atta-boy" to me with a twinkle in his eye. I would always remind him that I was a girl and he would just laugh! I spent a lot of time at the farm in Tabernacle when I was little. Pop-pop would give me rides on the motorcycle and let me play with the kennel dogs. I remember hearing him sing whenever he would come in the house. Pop-pop was always singing!

Years later, after I had married Tim and had two little boys, Matthew and Andrew, Pop-pop told us that he wanted our boys to call him Granddaddy. That was extremely special for them and he has been Granddaddy ever since.

We have held onto all of the precious memories we've had with Granddaddy over the years. He was fiercely loved by his son, Ben and his daughter-in-law, Pat. Ben would take daily bike rides to visit with his dad and after losing her own father in 1992, Pat was blessed to have an extra Daddy in Pop-Pop. We have wonderful memories of family dinners together. The last Thanksgiving that we were together, he sang all 4 verses of In the Garden to us at the dinner table. Pop-pop had a wonderful attitude and the discipline of very few others.

We are thankful for all of the memories we have of Granddaddy that no one can ever take away from us. We are thankful that he is now in a better place away from the troubles of this wicked, deceitful world.
