“ I didn't know Cindy. I just found out of your passing a couple of days ago. I would have been there for you and your family. I remember fun times years ago. Your sister and I were inseparable. A few years ago we literally almost ran into each other in Wawa's parking lot. When we realized who each other were it was so funny. I'll remember what you shared with me forever!! I'm sorry Cindy. Your at peace now. God Bless “ Oh Cindy, I tried to find you through 2012 when I returned home. I came across this very sad news just today. We shared SO much during a very special time in both of our lives. So many tears, but so much more laughter. You were a true kick girl. You were serious about the family and people you loved. I will ALWAYS remember you Cindy, Your beautiful children, and Mary, Leslie and Barb especially. My Prayers are with your Love, and your entire Family. Say hi to Al for me ok?

You rest in Peace now Dear Cindy.
Love you, Joanne B.

“ even though time won't stand still, our memories together will forever dance around in my heart and I thank you for that. I can still feel our arms wrapped around one another and I can hear you whispering in my ear. your spark always made the world a little brighter, your smile.....so pretty. your laughter....I will never forget. I love you forever, till we meet again and I can wrap my arms around you once again, shine on with peace in your heart and no more pain and suffering. all of my love,

grace

“ She had quite a personality, warm and caring, not afraid to engage and show love, but also a fireplug at times if you pushed her button. That must have been the greek side... lol!
