

Dale Howard Dennison

June 12, 1924 - February 19, 2011

Dale Howard Dennison of Mount Holly left to be with the Lord Saturday February 19, 2011 peacefully at home. He was 86.

Born in Zion Grove, Pa., Mr. Dennison lived in Mount Holly for 54 years. He honorably served his country during WWII as a B-24 pilot in the South Pacific. After the war he completed his degree in Accounting and Finance at Penn State University. He was a proud member of the Sigma Phi Sigma Fraternity while there. After college he worked for GE in Allentown, PA, where he met and married Margaret Tenchia the love of his life for 60 years. They moved to Mt. Holly where Dale worked as an auditor for the Air Force at McGuire AFB for 26 years, retiring in 1982.

Dale was a long time member of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. He also belonged to the McGuire chapter of the Daedalians, the Mt. Holly Lion's Club, and Retired Auditors of Burlington County. He coached Little League Baseball in Mt. Holly for many years. He was an avid golfer, and a religious Penn State football fan.

Dale was predeceased by two of his sons Glenn and Scott Dennison. He was the beloved husband of Margaret T. Dennison, devoted father of Alan D. (Cheryl) Dennison, and Lee S. (Lisa) Dennison, and one daughter-in-law, Patricia Hovell: and adored grandfather of Alan D. Dennison, Jr., Todd C. Dennison, Stephanie L. Dennison, Lauren K. Dennison, Stephen L. Dennison and Sarah M. Dennison. The brother of the late Anna Mae Lehr, he is also survived by his brother Eugene (Florence) Dennison of Zion Grove, Pa, and sister Linda Wahl of Whittier, Ca.

Friends and relatives may call from 7:00 until 9:00 pm on Thursday, February 24 at Perinchief Chapels 438 High St., Mt. Holly, NJ.
