Ahhhh Danny, where should I start? I have known you for so long it seems like forever. I am glad to know though that you went knowing you were loved by family and friends. You are there in Heaven now with some family members and can watch over your beautiful family here. You were always a fighter and fought to the end but I guess God has other plans for you now. God bless you and your family.

“ There are places I will go and look around the room thinking maybe Danny is there - and instead there will be an empty seat. But I know, regardless of the empty seat, Danny will still be there, with the same smile and the will to fight. The courage he has shown will be forever present. And in my head, I will hear him ask me again, 'how are you doing?' in that serious tone that told me he already knew I wasn't quite right that day. My heart goes out to all of his family and everyone who knew him and I wish you the same peace I am certain that Danny has today.

“ I don't have a particular memory. I've known Dan since the mid/late 1980s when we both worked at Carlson Craft in Lumberton. We became friends and hung out sometimes but lost touch until a few years later. He is one of the good guys who was always kind to everyone. He always had a smile and genuinely seemed happy to see you, no matter who you were. He will be missed.

“ I don't know where to begin, but I know that he was always so proud of his beautiful family and he could light up the room with his smile. To say that he will be missed is such an understatement. He took a huge piece of my heart with him when he left, but I will always carry his memories with me.
