

Daniel DiBonaventura

June 6, 1924 - September 15, 2023

Daniel DiBonaventura went home to be with the Lord on Friday, September 15, 2023 at his Mount Laurel home surrounded by family. He was 99 (and 4 months) old!

Born in Burlington, N.J. he lived in Burlington & Cumberland Counties most of his life. Dan was a huge Philadelphia sports fan and loved to watch the Phillies, Eagles and Flyers games.

Dan loved to serve God with his hands and often used his gifts as a mason on countless missions trips to Central and South America, the Caribbean and Mexico building churches and orphanages all while sharing his warm smile, jokes and love of Jesus with everyone he met. He also volunteered as a deacon and leader in many churches throughout south Jersey and would hand out sweets or candy to all the children.

He was a father to many and always known as "Dan the man" who's go-to outfit was a white suit and matching shoes.

He was predeceased by the love of his life, his wife of 50 years, Helen DiBonaventura, a son, Daniel DiBonaventura, and five siblings, Hank, Johnnie, Louie, Rose and Gloria.

Dan is survived by his sister Gilda, his three children; Faith Bell, Nathan DiBonaventura, and Hope Spinelli-DiBonaventura, four stepchildren, Elly Jaime, Debbie Scrimale, Arleen Collins, and Karen Boklan, 14 grandchildren, Daniel (DJ),

Angelica, Cara, George, David, Robert, Timothy, Deborah Lynn, Tiffany, Amanda,

Jake, Kevin, Nicolette and Julia, 34 great-grandchildren, and two great great-grandchildren.

Relatives and friends are invited to his visitation on Sunday, September 24 th from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m at the Haven Church, 25 Reeve Avenue, Haddon Township, N.J.

A service to celebrate his life will follow from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Haven.

The

Rev. Paul Scrimale will be officiating. Due to allergies, no flowers please.

Contributions in his memory may be made to The Haven Hands Foundation at www.havenhandsnj.org/donate .

“ Uncle Dan was so gracious and fun to be around. I talked to him after my mother passed and had a wonderful conversation. I remember he was as handsome as a movie star and larger than life. He reunites with his brothers and all family members. God's speed uncle Dan.

“ My dad Henry and Uncle Dan built several homes together when they were young men I remember bringing them hot coffee in my sled and as I was very young by the time I got it to them it had cooled during the wintertime They were both appreciative He led a loving life
I'm sorry over the years we seldom saw one another
