“ I grew up across the street from David (2 houses down) and we were just one grade apart....as young boys, we played together quite a bit and I have nothing but fond memories of him.....he was big kid but never a bully....quite the opposite.....I don't remember him ever being angry.....anyway, God Bless you David and your family! “ My deepest condolences. Mr. Wallace hugely influenced my life. He saw that I was a very confused young lady and tried to encourage me. I've never forgotten his tough but loving talks with me. I think of him often. ❤️

Our sincere condolences. Remember Dave as a gentle man with a sarcastic side to him, saddened to hear of these news. Praying for wife, children and sister Bette that sorrow is lightened for them.
