“ Debbie I miss you so much already. You were truly loved by many people. I'm going to miss hanging out with you and even more your Byron stories. I know how much you loved your children, besides Byron, that is all you talked about. Pete and Chris she was proud of you. Emily you were her baby, she worried about you, now she can sit right on your shoulder to protect you and your brothers. My heart goes out to the entire family but remember Debbie loved the Lord and she couldn't be in a better place. I love and miss you my friend...

“ I was always your baby sister. Whenever you called it was "Hi my baby sister, what you cooking, let me tell you and the conversation went on. I saw what you've went thru and I know you are in a better place.....but like Sue says letting go. I remember a time when you laughed when Mike and me were having a conversation about a chair he was suppose to fix and of course he never did but you laughed that special laugh when I told him to "JUST LET IT GO!" I will never let you go. You are forever in my heart and will never leave there. Thank you for loving people the way you did and always there to find some humor no matter what the situation was. Thank you for being my sister, my friend and my personal comedian. I love you but I know you are in a better place and have no more pain. Until we see each other again.....I miss you.....Love you

Debbie my sister, I miss the hell out of you. We had a few good times in Florida. Especially with Dad's car. You were always there when I needed help with dad. I will never forget. Words can not say enough. You left us very young & quick. I know you're at peace now & your resting. Petey & Chris & Emily will be fine. I just want you to know how much I love you. I've told you that all the time. I'm not going to lie, it's so damn hard to let go. I love you my big sister.

“ This is written by her middle son Christopher and Brittany Figueroa...

We'll start by saying Amara Mae Figueroa, (1 of her 6 grand children) loved Debbie, who she called "Fat Mom Mom". She would always ride in the backseat with Amara and when she would fuss Fat mom mom would play pee a boo with her. Amara would laugh and giggle so hard (she's got the best giggle) it would crack up all of us. She enjoyed car ride adventures with her fat mom mom. Everyone who knows Debbie, knows she was a VERY LOUD and EXPRESSIVE woman.

Usually younger children (Amara is 2), would be afraid of that type of person. But not Amara, from 2 days old to 2 years old Amara Mae absolutely adored and loved her Fat mom mom. Even when she would play yell at Amara when she would fuss for no reason, and tell her "stop that crying or I'll give you something to cry about!!! (Play yelling kinda) and Amara would laugh in her face, she just thought she was hilarious. Christopher and I will make sure the memories we have with her will be told to our daughter, So she will ALWAYS remember who her Fat mom mom was.

Christopher and I made sure during his Mommy's last days, even in her last hours we were there for her. He misses his mommy terribly, but he knows she is in a better place , with no suffering and no pain. Debbie held on for everyone in the family to say their peace and good byes, but she especially waited for Christopher to have one on one time with her and say his peace (which we will never know what was said that morning). Then after that moment she had with Christopher, she was showing signs of leaving this earth, he called everyone back into the room at 10:36 AM on the morning of November 3rd, 2016...the woman who he called Mommy and his friend, took her last breath. An old saying goes, that when it rains it's because an angel was taken into heaven. When we left the hospital Christopher and I went to Debbie's latest favorite place to eat (westhampton dinner) and when we came out it was raining. Chris and I looked at eachother and shared a moment, with the image of debbie gaining her angel wings and entering the golden *gates of heaven. Christopher David! She always yelled, when he wasn't answering or doing something stupid...even as a child growing up, Chris always said that's when he was in deep shit ! We love you Ma, Mommy, and Fat mom mom Please watch over us , especially Baby Mar Mar...love always and forever and miss you “ Debbie, you were one of a kind. For someone who had nothing your heart was pure gold and you never turned anyone away. I only pray you get the rest you so deserve now and hope you know how much you were loved by your family and friends.

Until we meet again, fly high girl with those beautiful golden wings. Gone but never will be forgotten. Love you to the moon and back.
