“ Diana was unique. All of my memories of her were from our childhood growing up in Columbus Park. I have wonderful memories of walking the park just talking and laughing. You ALWAYS laughed when you were with Diana she had a great sense of humor. I always felt like we had a mutual understanding of how it felt to grow up in a big family since we both had older siblings, a topic we talked about on several occasions! Rest in peace Diana, until we meet again.

“ I have many memories of Diana. One in particular was being in the labor and delivery room with her when she was having Jonathan, even then she managed to make me laugh. She embodied everything they say about redheads: fiery, feisty, fierce straightforward, stubborn, and she gave everything her all. Rest in Sweet heavenly Peace my friend, you will be deeply missed.
