“ She will be missed. If I ever needed a smack in the back of my head growing up she would help my Mom out and give it to me! Always looking out for Her friends and family. Growing up next to Rob and Diane Tracy and Scott is not something quickly forgotten. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Not many people can make me laugh to tears, aunt Di was one of those people. One convention we sat out on the deck till the sun started coming up wrapped in blankets that we stole from Justin and uncle Rob after they fell asleep in the rooms talking, laughing and just being silly. “Come in 5000” . <3

“ Dear family of Diane Hubbs:

I am sorry to hear that you lost your dear wife and mother. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. We have a great hope for the future because God promises to bring the dead to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief Bible message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ So many hilarious stories involving Diane. The biggest one in my mind is the fire @ the firemen's convention she started trying to fry up some food for all the firemen and their families. I ran out on deck and yelled fire when she couldn't get it under control.. they all thought it was a joke @ first. Another is our book signing trips for our fave author, the first one was a party and we got there early so went to walk around outside ending up on the War Memorial steps. Diane saw a guy and young man walking by and asked them to take our picture. When we got back in with party going we saw he was involved somehow so she asked him, Turns out it was the author's husband and son that took our picture. lol. So we got hubby to also sign our shirts. R.I.P. Diane. Heart and thoughts are with Rob, Tracy and Scott.

“ Diane was a good friend and mentor to me. She came to see me and my youngest daughter after delivery. She has been my daughters neighbor and loved to see my Grandbabies. I am missing her dearly, and wished I had visited more often before she had gone with the angels. She was so happy to hear I was getting married last November, and I have gifts that I will cherish forever along with our friendship. My love and prayers to her children and husband Rob. Gone but will never be forgotten, now I know I have a true guardian angel. ”

“ Diane was a great friend at one time. When Madison was born and had colic, Diane would hold her, rock her, walk with her and just let me breath. We had so many great times in Wildwood, at the Union and our Atlantic City trips. Rest easy Di. ”
