“None of us wanted you to leave this earth with so much life left to live, but you are at peace now and this is all we could pray for. Pop-pop you were a kind gentle man who would always greet us with a "Hi-a" when we would see you. I can never remember a time when you weren't calm and soft spoken, I wish there were more people in the world like you. There was never a time when you wouldn't help anyone out and you always did the right thing by everyone. You took us to Disney and gave me my first Bible (which I still have). I will not allow your memories fade and we will all be okay knowing you are looking down on us. When I say Heaven gained another angel I do not think many would argue. You were truly one of a kind and you will be missed greatly. I love you to the moon and back!

Liz (or as you called me Elizabeth)
