“ I didn't get to really know my great nephew Donald. Knew his Dad well. When the family talks about him it is with such love and pride. I give all my love and prayers to his Kary and sons. Life gives us memories that last a life time. When he is in your heart you have them forever! Always in our heart, Love Aunt Diana

“ Having worked with Don for the last 3-1/2 years you could not find a more likable guy, always with a smile on his face to the point you wonder what he was up too.. No matter what mood you were in when you saw the "big lug" with his signature walk coming toward you, you have to smile. A mountain of a man with a heart just as big.

Don had a vast knowledge of just about everything and was always willing to help anyone and tell you about his knowledge (at length :) whether you needed it or not.

Don was quick witted and kept us laughing, a great family man he loved Kary and his kids as he spoke of them often. Hard to believe we will not see him strolling into the shop or office again, Don left a big void within our company that will not be able to be filled.

He will surely be missed by all.

God Bless you Don.

“ I don't even have words for all of this. I have so much pain, angry, and questions on to why you left me. You were my true love. I never loved anyone more then I loved you. You had my back no matter what. You never gave up on me. You left me and your boys way to damn soon. You should be here to watch them grow. You were only 38 you had your whole life ahead of you. You didn't deserve this. I would do anything in the world to trade places with you. So many people love you and looked up to you. You were always there to answer everyone's questions about anything. If you didn't know the answers you found them out. The impact you have made on many people is unreal!! You have touched so many people's heart. I don't know how I'm going to go on with my life without you here. But I will promise you I will do anything and everything to make sure your boys are ok. They were your pride and joy. You always told me I work so hard so my kids never want for anything. I will try my absolute hardest to continue to do that for them. I promise you I will never leave Ethan and Corys side. I will do my best to guide them in life like you would have wanted. I still can't believe this. I love you so much baby. I miss you more then word can even express. I hope your having a shot of wild turkey with your father. I know you wanted more then anything to see him again. I just wish it wasn't right now. Until we meet again Suggie. I love you.

“ Honestly there arent enough words to express all the feelings i have right now. Kary boys and family im deeply sorry for your loss. Don clearly impacted so many peoples lives. He was invincible to so many people. Its still crazy to think he will never show up at my house again. I try to pull a little positivity and remember all the GREAT things he accomplished and all things he has done for some many people just because. He would have given a stranger the shirt off his back (as long as they didnt have attitude and werent more sarcastic as him lol) he was just a big loving teddy bear. I know my dad (teddy) is truly crushed by this. As you know they would have done anything for each other. Don was my dad only TRUE friend someone he could depend on no matter how big or how small the task. They were friends since the hill. I miss him already too as im sure everyone else does. To kary his boys n family you guys are more than welcome to come to our house or call at any time for any reason and we are there. I know he would be for us. Infact when my dad had his heart attacks don and kary were the ONLY friends of his that showed up at the hospital to check on him. I love all of yoy as if you were family. Rest in peace Don me my father and our family will never ever forget you xoxo

“ This was very hard to take. My eyes filled with tears as I heard the news, a great man taken way to soon. Don you were a great father, a great friend and a loving soul. Losing a loved one and friend is the most painful and difficult experience to endure. Don if love could have saved you, you never would have passed because you were loved by so many and so many who thought you were the best. In our hearts you will be and an angel above because God broke so many hearts to prove that he only takes the best, so until we meet again, rest easy old friend and fly high.. Love You don

“ It saddens me to see you gone, watching you grow up into a wonderful man and father and a wonderful big brother. You will be missed so very much. Watch over your dad, at least you are not alone. Wishing you were still here, but you are still here in our hearts. Rest peacefully. Love you Donald
