“ *May she rest in peace.
She will definately be missed.
I remember going to her house and meeting her 1st wolfhound.I had never seen this breed of dog until then.The dog was definately a gentle giant.I can see why she fell in love with them.##imported-begin##pat yacono##imported-end##*

“ *Donna and I grew up as teenagers living next door to each other. We shared many many times together and she was like a sister to me. I am thankful that we got to say goodbye and that we were in touch with each other. I love you Donna, forever!
I am saddened by the loss of such a beautiful and kind soul and I know in heaven that she is on the doggy side watching over all of us.
Blessings and peace to her family and friends.....##imported-begin##Kathy Weber##imported-end##*
