“ Remembering Aunt Doris fondly, especially the card games at our kitchen table growing up. At times, they would get heated but always in good fun and spirits. She always was dressed beautifully, charming and funny. She would share stories of her travels with Uncle Stuart and she is remembered well by our entire family. On behalf of my brother Frank, sister Meg and myself, may she rest in peace and her memory be everlasting. With deepest sympathies to Uncle Stuart.

“ Aunt Doris was so loving and kind- a giving spirit with a fabulous sense of humor. I can imagine her laughing and winking at me from heaven as I write this. What a wonderful person. I will miss her so.

“ There's never been an important moment in my life that Aunt Doris and Uncle Stuart were not a part of. However, my favorite memory of Aunt Doris is her "mooning" my friends at a nightclub in Five Points in Columbia, SC. I cannot count the number of times she and Uncle Stu visited our family (wherever we happened to be stationed at the time), and they were always ready to have a good time!! On that particular evening, they joined me and my friends at our local night spot, and Aunt Doris made sure she left a lasting impression!! She and Uncle Stuart were the last surviving members of my immediate "family," and I will miss her dreadfully.

“ Some of my favorite memories of Aunt Doris include the many times that she and Uncle Stuart came over to our house in Florence on Friday nights. They would eat out and then join our family for rousing games of pinochle at our kitchen table. My dad and mom always enjoyed these visits so much. It was good old fashioned fun and especially important to mom once dad passed away. She could always rely on Uncle Stu and Aunt Doris for emotional support during those rough years.

We will miss Aunt Doris with her great humor and high spirits!
Love to Uncle Stu from our family. We are always here for you.
