Edie Randolph passed away after a lengthy illness March 17, 2019 with her family at her side. The daughter of F. Davis and Evelyn Arnold, she was born April 30, 1931 in New Castle, PA. She graduated from high school in Rochester, PA in 1949 after attending 13 schools in 12 years because her father (a civil engineer) moved from job to job so often.

Edie took great delight in and was extremely proud of her 6 grandchildren: Chris and Katie Kershaw and Andrew, Mark, Eric, and Elizabeth Chilton.

In addition to enjoying her grandchildren, Edie was very active in her church. Over the years, she served as a Deacon, a Sunday School and Bible School teacher, Woman's Circle leader, and a greeter. She also enjoyed board and card games, as well as traveling, and vacationing in Ocean City, NJ.
