“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 to “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what you are facing God is there to help you get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.

“ Uncle Eddie was my favorite uncle! I loved him dearly and will remember him with great fondness especially all the great times shared during family outings like boating on the jersey shore, fishing, crabbing and picnics at grandmom and grandpop's shore homes. My deepest thoughts and sympathy to my Aunt Shirley, Audrey & Joe, and Carl & Brenda at this time. With all my love, Terri

“ Shirley, Audrey, Joe and the rest of your family – Lynn told us of Ed's passing and I wanted you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Losing your husband and the father of your children is very difficult thing. it's been a year and a half since I lost my Bob and while the time has gone by it feels like it was just yesterday. I just wanted you to know that I was thinking about you and I'm sorry that I won't be there to see you on Saturday. Jan Borden
